Peters/Floum Clan continues to ban and censor at 911blogger.com

by 911bloglines.com

January 18, 2007

shoutwire.com

(Sorry, 72.225.2xx.xx has been banned, Report at 911blogger.com January 18th, 2007)

(see also 9/11 Blogger Watch 01/16)

Comment: Posting photos of myself, and my real name along with my address below is an example of rather overt intimidation.

Yesterday night, Roger Peters aka dz aka dazinith and his co-admin George Washington aka Dane Alexander Floum continued to censor and ban a mini promotion tour of some supporters of 911bloglines.com at 911blogger.com.

Attorney Alexander Floum is a well known suspicious entity in this 9/11 Truthling Movement and at one point was associated with Los Alamos - and U.S. Department of Energy clients via his old lawyer company. He also helped brokering the diversion at Scholars for 9/11 Truth. See also What has happened to Scholars for 9/11 Truth? and alex floum \(tag\).

So who is Roger Peters aka dz, who claims, he's so "open minded", while he continues to ban even anonymous members at 911blogger.com, banning IPs and even anonymizers, while allowing at the same time other anonymous members to trash veteran 9/11 researchers and continue to cover up evidence on 9/11 tv fakery, the use of ExoW on the morning of 9/11 and the Orwellian Infiltration of StarWars contributors at the top of this movement cult (Bowman, ProfJones and Jim Hoffman, prior 9/11!)?

Peters aka dz aka dazinith (handle at democraticunderground.com and other portals, where he used to post) is apparently 27 years old and came from marietta, ga.

Peters started 911blogger.com 2, 3 years ago and rumour has it, that Floum was helping out with startup bucks.

He furthermore used an obscure T-Shirt Company as one of his first sponsors.

Obviously obsessed with hip hop attitude, Rogers used the T-shirt company spreadshirt.com from leipzig (east germany) which is also directly linked to a cooling company from Pennsylvania named IceQube (Cooling Systems) yet another hip hop code for Ice Cube from formerly Public Enemy (Fear of a black planet).

Both spreadshirt.com and Ice Qube Inc. was residing at 911 South Main Street, Greensburg.

An odd numerology which could be also linked to South Tower, 9/11, CGI and a short distance to Shanksville.

Oddly Spreadshirt Inc. also have some offices in Utrecht, home of one of the last bigger 9/11 truth conferences.

Only 2 years after spreadshirt was funded with the money of one ex-SIEMENS employee (Siemens is also a weapon contractor), they had their offices worldwide, but why did Peters have the same address? Was it just a franchise address or more?

Comment: The IP address listed above was banned for spamming our website with 10+ duplicate comments in the same thread – each with 5-10+ flash embedded 'widgets'. This large number of scripts and widgets caused popup error windows to occur due to conflicts in the scripts and the number of which were duplicates.

This IP was banned for spam and abuse of the system, not to 'censor'. I would argue that the intentional abuse of the system was with the intention of having the IP address blocked so as to facilitate the cat calls of "censorship".

George Washington had nothing to do with this moderation as his involvement with our website is purely as a content creator, and not as a moderator of any comments or postings.

Comment: Nico also states 'of some supporters' to suggest that the postings were by multiple people, but shows above that he is the one receiving the IP address ban warning – all of the spam attacks were from this IP.

Comment: Banning of IP addresses is done only to those who abuse the system through spamming or intentional attack scripts. Anyone who checks our comments section will see that we do not censor for opinions – only for abuse of the system.

Comment: Note that while throwing accusations of "censoring" he then turns to suggest that others should in turn be censored.

Comment: 911blogger.com has been funded entirely out of my pocket since day one. The only other form of support has come from google ads which we added 3 months ago, these funds are now used to help pay our server bills.

Comment: The word 'sponsors' suggests that I have received monetary funding through this company. I have never received a single penny from these t-shirts.

Comment: Spreadshirt.com was chosen because they support printing on multi colored shirts (unlike cafepress.com).

How their location, ties to a cooling system, or the rapper Ice Cube fit into anything to do with me is unknown. This is just one example of ewing2001's use of 1,000,000 degrees of separation in an attempt to somehow undermine me – albeit I don't know how.

I do like hip-hop FYI.

Comment: What is meant by 'same address' is not obvious, nor is how their address bares any reflection upon me.

Greensburg, PA 15601-4140
<http://www.spreadshirt.com>

Let's skip that coincidence, which might be meaningless.

Comment: The majority of the 'coincidences' (or outright invention) in this article are 100% meaningless – and typically completely incorrect or inaccurate.

dz aka Roger Peters is also graphic designer and started to work with his skills in Marietta, GA.

He also was at the 9/11 Spooker Conference in LA, last year.

Comment: Nico seems to imply that I am a graphic designer by profession – this is not correct. I have done graphics design for years as a hobby, but not as a career.

Marietta, GA is home for Southern Polytechnic State University (SPSU), Chattahoochee Technical College and Life University and just some blocks away from a Lockheed-Martin manufacturing plant.

Comment: I have never been to California, nor have I ever attended a conference in L.A.

Interestingly SPSU is also linked to SIEMENS.

Comment: How this has anything to do with me is again not obvious. Any such statement could be made regarding any university in the country.

In 2002, German engineering giant Siemens has hastily abandoned plans to register the trademark "Zyklon", the same name as the Zyklon B poison gas used in Nazi extermination camps, BBC News Online has learnt.

Not that it matters, but Marietta was also home for mindOped victims JonBenet Ramsey and Patsy Ramsey which are buried there.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Marietta,_Georgia.

Peters is a multiple geek, together with his wife, which he reveals here at hiptop.com:
"...my woman has an SK2, and looking at her listing of apps and games is incredibly frustrating.. i dont think anyone remembers how many apps/games there actually were on the SK2 - there were a ton..."

Comment: Yes, I do have a sidekick phone. More pointless and irrelevant musings.

However Peters' mindset is obviously damaged with too many shooters. At one point he reveals with his other handle dazinith, that he's a big DOOM fan, once again not necessarily a bad thing.

Comment: Yes, I have played video games, mostly puzzle games though. As of right now I have not touched my XBOX in over 3 weeks.

Rogers aka dz is also a X-BOX game designer:

Comment: I am not an "X-BOX game designer". Simply reading the link provided shows that I made a skin for my phone which was for an XBOX game. There is no such 'game designing' required to create an image and put it on your phone

"...i made a couple for the upcoming Xbox360 game saints row.." (Aug 02, 2006)

Comment: I very rarely comment on any personal opinions in the movement, and most assuredly have not been overt in expressing any opinions on this subject.

Probably that's the reason, why his brain starts to melt, because dz is one of the most rabid planehuggers in this movement and does believe in butter buildings and "butterplanes".

Comment: As stated above, GW has never played a role as a moderator of the site, only as a content creator.

Peters know how simple CGIs work, but obviously depends on an artificial ego, helped out by intellectual property specialist Alexander Floum aka GeorgeWashington(blog), who's helping him to ban, censor and writing drivels not only against the evidence on 9/11 TV Fakery but also the facts on existing exotic weaponry, which point clearly on the use of most of them on 9/11 (incl. Direct Energy Types, Anti-Matter and possibly many others as well).

Comment: No web anonymizers have been intentionally banned. Any which are banned are as a result of abuse of the system from IP addresses which they use. It would make sense however that many attacks on our system would come from such anonymizers.

Peters is possibly not a spook, just a rabid 9/11 Truthling, but he also lied at several occasions and continued to censor blogs at 911blogger.com, even bans anonymizers.

Comment: I do not do any graphics work for money, it is a hobby which I rarely engage in lately, nothing more.

He's an Orwellian Cyber Fascist, who has not much in common with any traditional definition of the word "truth" which was stolen by the most brainwashed truthlings.

Nico also seems to imply that I somehow make money through running the website, which is completely incorrect – I have never profited from running 911blogger, in fact I have spent a reasonable amount of money in running it.

Peters aka dz, also active at digg is possibly not making enough money with his X-BOX graphics and therefore stabilizes his ego with the help of a news portal which controls their own version of "truth" and allows convenient spooks or spook assets like John Albanese to spread their propoganda and threats against other 9/11 researchers.

Comment: Is the posting of someone's picture, real name, and address are not forms of intimidation or threats? I have engaged in none of this.

Comment: I am not responsible for the comments posted to the site. I 'allow' all comments, except for those which are intentionally abusive to the site such as spam bots, or comment flooding. The usage of 'allow' is intentionally misleading as to suggest that I somehow am actively involved in the process of posting comments.

"Butterhead" dz (cartoon language!) is also a veteran leftgatekeeper, once active at George Soros-Front GNN, where he possibly met "Reprehensor", one of his other "moderators" at 911blogger.com.

Comment: Nico's use of the word 'active' is inaccurate in that there is only one comment I have ever posted on GNN, and that I have never posted anything more that I recall. This does not fit the definition of 'active'. A quick check of my profile there will show this quite clearly.

He also posted once at libertyforum

Peters claims he hasn't much money, which might be true, but at one point lived in an expensive "hotel", which was also listed in some real estate portals.

Comment: I have never 'lived in a hotel'. I have stayed at hotels though, no more than 3 days at most – and very very infrequently – I would guess a majority of Americans have as well.

Studio Prices Not Available

Comment: I wish an apartment cost $100 a month! These numbers are totally inaccurate.

Peters confirmed these facts in 2006 and could also explain away his association with spreadshirt.com.

Comment: There is no need to 'explain away' any 'association' with spreadshirt. They are a shirt maker used by millions, much like cafepress, and that is the only 'association' I have ever had with this company.

Comment: I have never confirmed that I lived in a hotel – in fact I stated the exact opposite.

(Photo: George Washington aka Attorney Floum, <http://www.transformingpractices.com/mo/mo20flo.html> "...During one conversation, he told me that he was a Christian. In response, I told him that I, too, am spiritual....")

However his close teamwork with spiritual geek Floum is more than just controversial.

And again, the same address of this t-shirt company at this real estate address is a bit obscure.

It is also linked to a martial art company.
<http://martialartstv.com/corporate/legal/clothing-legal.pdf>

"...Your contract partner for all orders made through this online offer is Spreadshirt GmbH, represented by the managing directors Lukasz Gadowski, Matthias C. Spiess and Michael Petersen, Karl-Heine-Strasse 97, D-04229 Leipzig, and from here forth referred to as "Spreadshirt"..."

How and when did Spreadshirt get started?
Co-founder "Rodney" aka Matthias Spiess explains at t-shirtforums.com:

"....I started spreadshirt while enrolled at business school. This was late 2001.

I did project work in different areas, for example I was project manager for Siemens at an IT project which made me very proud.

... So, with no money I put together a first prototype of spreadshirt in May 2001..."

Which was only a few weeks before 9/11.

"...Lukasz Gadowski is the founder and CEO of SpreadShirt, Inc. Spreadshirt is a t-shirt fulfillment company that allows individuals and companies to open an online storefront selling t-shirts, hats, and other custom printed items with no upfront costs..."

It might be just logical, that Peters just met spreadshirt by coincidence by googling some sponsors, but the oddities of this company without any clear start budget remain:

USA:

That's also "dz"'s T-shirt contact.

Is this another inside joke? That's only a few airmiles away from Shanksville.

Comment: No, it is called 1,000,000 degrees of separation.

Peters claimed in 2006, his "connection" with Spreadshirt Inc. was just coincidental, but obviously clear enough to run their earliest franchise from a hotel.

Comment: The assertion is made here that using a t-shirt website like millions of other people somehow makes a "connection". It would be equally as absurd to suggest that having a google search, or using blogger.com, suggests some sort of insidious 'connection'.

Fast Forward:

Here is the real inspiration of dz's handle, coming right out of the Orwellian Satire "Brazil", which was inspired by 1984:

"...When Sam Lowery first gets into Jill's cab, he says that he is number is D Zed stroke 105 (DZ/105) when in actuality his number is D Zed Stroke 015 (DZ/015)..."

Comment: This is a complete invention by Nico with no support other than his making the statement.

Dazinith is a web moniker which I came up with in 1996 while watching a 'Zenith' brand television.

On a side note, at the end of 'Zoolander' all of the children are wearing shirts which state 'DZ' (for Derik Zoolander), you could have suggested that is where it came from as well – both would be equally incorrect and unsupported assertions.

But our dz aka Roger Peters is far away from being a satiricon or computer number "mistake".
He's a BS artist from the worst and misleading daily 10.000 visitors at 911blogger.com

Peters aka dz will continue to do what 1984-Orwellians love: CENSORSHIP, DOUBLESPEAK and DOUBLETHINK!

And he will allow more postings like the once below from a brainwashed anonymous truthling, which once wasn't moderated at all and not ranked down:

Comment: Again misleading that I am somehow actively involved in what is posted in the comments section.

Anonymous wrote (late 2006 on 911blogger.com):
"..You're so full of shit it's not even funny. Stop pretending to be someone you're not. You know you bumped this topic so you could further spread your no plane BS, since it's the only way you can on this website, thanks to dz's recent decision to monitor user blogs.

DZ, ban these idiots once and for all. Delete CB's account for spamming and spreading lies if he continues to do so.

If others continue to spam this website with their lies you should delete all posts having to do anything with their debunked nonsense about no planes at the wtc..."

This anonymous' remark was also supported by regulars of 911blogger.com, i.e. Dem Bruce Styles, Jonathan Gold or casseia.

Comment: Note again that in his complaints of "censorship" he in turn calls for censorship of others. The reality is that I do not censor any comments posted except for those which are considered abuses of the system. Any statements made on the site are not made by me, nor approved by me.

Lately 911blogger.com also desperately try to keep postings under control which posted about evidence on exoW on 9/11 by allowing brain fart blogs like "FALSE FLAG NEWS' DL Abrahamson exposes 9/11 "SPACE BEAM" disinformation being promoted at 911Blogger.com", which for sure was a hangout attempt in itself.

Picking a comment on the site and then suggesting that it is somehow reflective upon me is disingenuous and is a subversive suggestion that we should moderate against anything which we do not agree with otherwise it will be attributed to having been 'allowed' by us.

Another 9/11 truthling:
"...Don't contribute to 911Blogger until dz bans the disinformation spam artists who are making a mockery out of all 911 research..."

Comment: We do handle the publishing of blog entries, however it has not always been this way. It became this way only after abuses of the system through flooding the site with duplicate posts, etc. At this point we do not facilitate the site to be used as nothing more than a place to argue all day. We typically would like for our blog entries to be focused on activism or news – not never-ending infighting – and as such some blog entries focused specifically on facilitating such arguments have not been posted.

Needless to say, neither 911blogger.com, Floum, Peters or any of the Orwellian Fascists, who run this movement did any single 9/11 research by themselves: David Ray Griffin (multiple plagiarist and cultist, also in China), Steven E Jones (betraying the U.S. in 1989 by blocking a free energy project, developer of exotic weaponry for Los Alamos etc...), Bob Bowman and others.

Comment: The suggestion that 911blogger 'runs this movement' is a fallacy. We run a website focused on 9/11 just like hundreds of others do. The fact that our website has gained some level of popularity is merely the result of individuals visiting our website of their own volition.

Expect worse.

OSS/Tavistock front Urantia who runs major parts of the 9/11 Truthing Movement, has also an office in Arizona, home of the next big 9/11 Spook Conference.

Also recently NEXUS Magazine editor Michael W. Mandeville (Arizona!) contributed with a big article about the lies of this movement, which is oppressing major evidence and allied with FOX TV, CNN and Vivendi for spreading their planehugger lies.

(NEXUS is an australian front for Jimmy Carter's mindOP cult disclosureproject, a UFO 'fanclub', once supported by Government Spooks like ex-CIA and PNAC member James Woolsey)

ADDENDUM

The 911truth.org Byron Belitsos/Urantia/Bechtel/One World Order ties

<http://questionsquestions.net/docs04/belitsos-urantia.html>

http://www.urantiabook.org/newbook/ppr134_6.html

Belitsos has made his 9/11-related activities into a channel for his world government ideology. The following is an excerpt from a review of the recent "9/11 Convergence" conference in California:

The first speaker was Byron Belitsos, whose Origin Press published Inside Job. His vision is "planetary democracy", also referred to as World Federalism. He would like to replace the United Nations with a World Parliament, which would "rule the world democratically"...

9/11 Convergence: a Report and Commentary by Joseph Kerrick
<http://www.questionsquestions.net/docs04/kerrick-911convergence.html>

Belitsos collaborated with Jim Garrison in presenting the 911 Convergence conference. Garrison is the co-founder with Mikhail Gorbachev of the State of the World Forum, which promotes world government, new age religions, and population reduction. Garrison and Gorbachev are both friends and colleagues with George Schultz, which is rather interesting given that Garrison is pitching his views as the antithesis or solution to current US foreign policy. Schultz himself played a key role in installing into the Bush Administration the so-called "vulcans" (including Condoleeza Rice, Paul Wolfowitz, et al) who have been at the forefront of this "unilateralist" policymaking! Garrison also once held a position at the Esalen Institute, which has extensive connections to US psychological warfare & mind control operations. Note also that Gorbachev is close to George Soros. A brief Garrison bio:

Jim Garrison cofounded the State of the World Forum in 1995 with Mikhail Gorbachev. The Forum is a San Francisco-based non-profit institution created to establish a global network of leaders dedicated to those principles, values, and actions necessary to guide humanity toward a more sustainable global civilization. With President Gorbachev as its Convening Chairman and Jim Garrison as its President, the Forum has brought together leaders from around the world to its annual and regional convenings to deliberate upon and take action concerning issues of global concern. Jim's most recent focus, and that of the Forum, has been the Integral Governance Initiative, dedicated to establishing global issue networks to solve global problems.

Garrison became active in foreign policy issues, particularly with Soviet-American relations, in the mid-1970s. From 1986 to 1990, he served as Executive Director of the Esalen Institute Soviet American Exchange Program, which engaged in nongovernmental diplomacy with Soviet counterparts in a variety of sectors. In 1991, he founded the International Foreign Policy Association in collaboration with Georgian President Edward Shevardnadze and former Secretary of State George Schultz, focusing on providing humanitarian relief for children in the former Soviet republics.
