Tucson, AZ, Oct. 22, 2006 - Statewide results of the 2006 Congressional Candidate 9/11 Truth Poll are in. The survey was conducted by 911Truth-Tucson by mailing questionnaires to the winners of the recent Arizona primary races for US House and Senate in all Arizona congressional districts. The surveys were provided by 911Truth.org -- a leading national 9/11 Truth group. The survey asked candidates for their opinions regarding the attacks of September 11 and the official investigations that followed.

Five candidates responded to the poll:

Richard Mack	Senate	Libertarian
Mark Yannone	CD3	Libertarian
Don Karg	CD4	Republican
Warren Severin	CD5	Libertarian
David Nolan	CD8	Libertarian

Some of the questions from the poll and the candidates' answers follow:

Are you aware that many prominent Americans and 45% of the public say they would like to see a new and truly independent 9/11 inquiry, specifically one that also examines the case for government foreknowledge and complicity? (YES - Mack, Yannone, Karg, Severin, Nolan)

Do you believe that government truth issues – ranging from 9/11, anthrax, and the Patriot Act to the Iraq war, surveillance encroachments, legislative deceptions, and other administration initiatives – may all be significantly related? (YES - Yannone, Karg, Severin, Nolan; UNCERTAIN - Mack)

If you are successful in November, would you support a truly independent victim-family supervised and subpoena-empowered re-investigation of all the 9/11 evidence and events? (YES – Mack Yannone, Severin, Nolan; NO - Karg)

Given the evidence for, and the significance of, potential government involvement, are you willing to make the demand for a new 9/11 inquiry an important issue in your campaign? (YES - Mack, Yannone, Karg; NO - Severin, Nolan)

Would you accept campaign volunteers largely motivated by our democracy's tactical and strategic need for 9/11 truth? (YES – Mack, Yannone, Nolan; NO – Karg, Severin)

Would you be willing to accept and endorse the distribution of well-documented 9/11 Truth materials in your electoral district? (YES – Yannone, Severin; NO – Mack, Karg; MAYBE - Nolan)
